Please return completed application to the Williamson Public Library to the attention of Michael Collins, Board President.

We appreciate your interest in serving as a Trustee of the Williamson Public Library. All trustee positions for the Williamson Public Library are unpaid volunteer positions. Applications are reviewed when there is a vacancy. Library Trustees approve library policies, provide oversight to the financial and governance operations of the library, and work to ensure that the library has the necessary fiscal support to meet community needs and New York Department of Education, Division of Library Development guidelines and regulations.

The Board meets monthly and meetings are open to the public. If you have questions, please contact Michael Collins, Board President or Kimberly Iraci, Library Director at (315) 589-2048.
